Which held its first convention in Boston, Mass., August 23-24, 1900
BOOKER T. WASHINGTON, President and Founder.

This convention was the first National Convention of colored business men ever held in this or any other country. Every class of business was represented: the farmer, the banker, the educator, the doctor, the lawyer, the manufacturer, the author, the merchant and rulers of municipalities. The addresses delivered and papers read are all in this book besides over fifty cuts of delegates and others, which makes it a valuable souvenir of the convention.
